WHO IS NAMI AND WHAT WE DO
NAMI, the National Alliance on Mental Illness, is the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness.

What started as a small group of families gathered around a kitchen table in 1979 has blossomed into the nation's leading voice on mental health. Today, we are an association of hundreds of local affiliates, state organizations, and volunteers who work in your community to raise awareness and provide support and education that was not previously available to those in need.

What We Do

NAMI relies on gifts and contributions to support our important work:

We educate. Offered in thousands of communities across the United States through NAMI State Organizations and NAMI Affiliates, our education programs ensure hundreds of thousands of families, individuals and educators get the support and information they need.

We advocate. NAMI shapes national public policy for people with mental illness and their families and provides volunteer leaders with the tools, resources and skills necessary to save mental health in all states.

We listen. Our NAMI HelpLine allows us to respond personally to hundreds of thousands of requests each year, providing free referral, information and support – a much-needed lifeline for many.

We lead. Public awareness events and activities, including Mental Illness Awareness Week and Walkathons, successfully fight stigma and encourage understanding. NAMI works with reporters on a daily basis to make sure our country understands how important mental health is.

NAMI Western Massachusetts has our annual walkathon in May that draws hundreds of concerned citizens every year who walk together to raise money and awareness about this often misunderstood illness.

Please consider forming a team or walking as an individual at the 2020 Walkathon in support of NAMI Western Massachusetts.
